What do we fund?

All of our funding must directly help disadvantaged people through our one or both of our charitable priorities

Education & training

This could be any activity which helps people to improve their confidence in a skill or understanding

- does not have to be formal learning or lead to a recognised qualification

Examples include:

- independent living skills, anger management, improving self esteem
- reminiscence work with older people, art & craft sessions, IT classes

Financial capability

Helping disadvantaged people to understand how to manage their money

- it could include budgeting skills, accessing affordable credit
- managing the challenges that arise from being a carer, unemployed, disabled or through relationship break up
- examples include funding the costs of running a credit union, projects delivering debt management advice, helping people to understand their benefit entitlement

Type of funding available

All funding is one-off.
We do not offer multi year funding.
Entire element.

REVENUE

- Project costs
